FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Robert B. Blakely has been appointed director of food service at Montana State University, according to James A. Brown, director of residence halls. He succeeds Miss D. Gertrude Chamberlain, whose resignation becomes effective May 31.

Blakely has been coordinator of food service for women's residence halls at Colorado State University for the past four years. He was food manager at the Colorado School of Mines for a year. He has been a restaurant owner and manager and for a year was assistant purchasing agent for the Radisson Hotel, Minneapolis, Minn.

A native of Iowa, Blakely attended Augustana College in South Dakota. After interrupting his education for two years' service in the U. S. Navy, he earned a B. S. degree in business administration from the University of Denver in 1957.

Blakely will arrive at MSU in May and be joined later by his wife and three children.
